NASA astronaut to address women engineers

NASA astronaut Bonnie Dunbar will give the keynote address at the Cal Poly Society of Women Engineers (SWE) 1998 Sonora Regional Conference set for Friday through Sunday, Feb. 27-March 1, at the Embassy Suites in San Luis Obispo.

Dunbar will speak at the conference breakfast Feb. 28.

A member of the first space shuttle mission to dock with the Russian space station Mir, Dunbar also participated early in 1998 as a mission specialist on STS-89, the eighth of nine planned missions to dock with Mir. Dunbar has logged almost 1,000 hours in space.

Approximately 150 students and professional engineers from Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, and Southern California are expected to attend the event, hosted this year by SWE, Cal Poly's largest student club.

The weekend's events will include tours of local wineries, Hearst Castle and Diablo Canyon on Friday, the Career Fair, educational seminars, and regional meetings on Saturday, and various social activities Saturday evening.

For information, call ext. 6-2350 or e-mail the club at www.csc.calpoly.edu/~swe. □

- "Utilidor.....Is No More" by Elberta Kerr, Facility Services, and Patti Hamer Breckenridge, Environmental Horticultural Sciences.

- "UtiliDONE" by David Burman.

The winning slogan will be the official motto for the end-of-the-project party on April Fool's Day in the UU Plaza.

A total of 56 entries were submitted. The winners were chosen by two judges not involved in the project, who did not see the entrants' names. One judge was from campus, one from off campus.

Each participant will receive a custom button with his or her slogan on it. All entries also appear on the Utilidor Web site.

For more information, contact Deby Ryan at ext. 6-6806. □

Criterion, road races set for Feb. 28-March 1

The Cal Poly Wheelmen cycling club will hold its annual Cal Poly Classic bicycle races on Feb. 28 and March 1, with North County road races on Saturday and the downtown San Luis Obispo Criterion on Sunday.

The nine categories of road racers are scheduled to start between 11 am and 12:10 pm Saturday from the entrance to Santa Margarita Lake. The course follows a 30-mile loop.

SLO Criterion races begin throughout the day from 7:30 am to 4:25 pm. They tentatively include a children's race at 2:25 pm that would loop once around the 0.6-mile course.

The starting and finish line is at Higuera and Chorro. Registration for each race closes 15 minutes before starting time.

For more information, call Wheelmen representative Milos Nemcik at 547-1185, or call 786-4727 to volunteer to help. □

Utilidor slogan is a Zingger

"UTILIDOR: Out of Sight, Out of Mind" submitted by Provost Paul Zingg is the winning entry for the end-of-the-utilidor slogan contest.

Jo Ann Lloyd of the Communications Office was the runner-up with "UTILIDOR: From Tunnel Vision to Hindsight."

The three honorable mentions were:

- "Utilidor...NO MORE! You can see the campus core, SPIRITS ROAR!!" submitted by Anne Arnett in Transportation.

Discrimination topic of March 3 program

The Staff Council's Cultural Awareness Committee is sponsoring a program focusing on discrimination from 11 am to 1 pm Tuesday, March 3, in UU 220.

Participants will watch a video, "A Class Divided," about an experiment conducted by Iowa teacher Jane Elliott.

Elliott divided her all-white, all-Christian third graders into blue- and brown-eyed groups for a lesson in discrimination.

After the video presentation, a discussion will be led by two members of the Central Coast Diversity Council, Quinn Plante and Caryn Madansky. □

Dairy Center on view at March 4 Poly Form

Faculty and staff can sample and evaluate Cal Poly's milk, cheese and homemade ice cream at the next Poly Forum breakfast meeting from 7:30 to 9 am Wednesday, March 4, at the Dairy Unit.

Participants will hear about a unique no-melt cheese product developed and patented by dairy professor Nana Farkye and learn about the finer points of product testing. A contest will be held to challenge attendees' knowledge of dairy products.

Tours of the university's new state-of-the-art Dairy Products Technology Center will be given.

Tickets cost $10 if reserved by Friday, Feb. 27, and $14 thereafter. For more information or to reserve tickets, call ext. 6-1590. □

Brass quintet, organist to perform March 8

Paramount Brass, an energetic quintet hailed for its superb musicianship and outstanding audience rapport, will be joined by acclaimed organist James David Christie in an afternoon performance Sunday, March 8, in the Performing Arts Center.

The Cal Poly Arts concert for symphonic brass and organ will begin at 3 pm in the Cohan Center's Harman Hall.

Selections include works by Praetorius, Bach, Monteverdi, Scheidt, Karg-Elert, Copland, Alian, Grainger, Brahms and Dupré.

Boston's Paramount Brass has received accolades from audiences and critics alike in such venues as the Wang Center in Boston, the National Cathedral in Washington, Tanglewood, St. Paul's Chapel in New York City, and at Symphony Hall in Boston as part of the Boston Symphony Orchestra's "Salute to Symphony."

Christie, Boston Symphony organist since 1978, has been called one of the finest organists of his generation. Currently Distinguished Artist-in-Residence at the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., he also serves on the faculties of Wellesley College and the Boston Conservatory.

In 1979, Christie became the first American to win first prize in the International Organ Competition in Bruges, Belgium. He was also the first person in the history of the competition to be awarded first prize by both the jury and the audience.

Tickets cost $8 to $22. □

Seven students awarded London Study scholarships

Seven students have been awarded $500 scholarships to help pay expenses while attending the London Study Program in spring 1998.

Jamie De Angelis, a junior English major, and Celeste Scott, a junior social sciences major, each received the Jon M. Ericson Scholarship, established by the American Institute for Foreign Study in honor of the retired dean of the College of Liberal Arts and founder of Cal Poly's London Study Program.

The other students' scholarships are funded by Cal Poly's London Study Program and were awarded to Corina Bittleston, an English junior; Ryan Stubblefield, computer science senior; Christopher Lynch, business junior; Jennifer LaMotte, liberal studies junior; and Renee Carter, graphic communication junior.

This spring more than 150 students and 11 faculty members will be in London for 10 weeks. □

Nuno Costa, a resident in Yosemite Hall

Dorm students to soon have OpenMail

Starting spring quarter, e-mail accounts used by students living in the dorms will be moved from the UNIX e-mail system to the new OpenMail system.

Most faculty and staff users moved to OpenMail last fall.

Information collected in this pilot project will be helpful as the university connects all student e-mail users to OpenMail by mid-September.

Since last fall, the Housing Computing Office has offered students access to new WinTerm computer labs in each residence hall study lounge. Using these network computers, students can access the Web, check e-mail, and use a wide collection of popular software.

The dorm labs recently began providing Career Ware's Choices software, a broad database about jobs, graduate schools, and financial aid. This software was provided in cooperation with Career Services. □

Our mistake

Our apologies to the staff of Institutional Planning and Analysis. We inadvertently used their former name (Institutional Studies) in the headline of an article that appeared in the Feb. 11 issue of the Cal Poly Report.

Tickets to the performances listed in today's Cal Poly Report are on sale at the Performing Arts Ticket Office from 10 am to 6 pm weekdays and from 10 am to 4 pm Saturdays. To order by phone, dial 6-ARTS (ext. 6-2787). For information on Cal Poly Arts events, visit its Web site at www.calpolyarts.org.

Precipitation prompts plea to 'pool'

Many members of the campus community who normally bike or walk to work have been driving to campus because of heavy rains this quarter. This has resulted in a tremendous demand for parking spaces, and the already-crowded parking lots have been overflowing, so to speak, particularly on rainy days.

To help alleviate some of the problem, the university encourages the use of alternate transportation such as the free city bus, the subsidized county bus, and car and van pools.

For more information on alternate transportation, call Commuter Services at ext. 6-6680. □

CSU salary schedule now on WEB

The CSU salary schedule is available on the Web to those whose computers have an "Acrobat Reader."

The Acrobat Reader takes very little space and is widely available. It can be downloaded from the Help Desk section of the Cal Poly Web page (www.helpdesk.calpoly.edu/contents_soft_calpoly_main.html). To avert incompatibility problems that could occur, be sure to check with your LAN coordinator before installing any software from the Help Desk on your machine.

To access the salary schedule, go to www.calstate.edu/hrpims/salary.htm. Click on the section of the salary schedule you want to read. The Acrobat Reader will automatically open the salary information designated.

If you have questions about how to interpret the salary schedule, call Gwen Chavarria in Human Resources at ext. 6-5426. Technical questions can be directed to your LAN coordinator or to the Help Desk at ext. 6-7000. □

'Managing Change' topic of March 4 talk

"The Leadership Role in Managing Change" is the topic to be discussed by Chevron executive Norman Angell at 4 pm Wednesday, March 4, in Room 114 in the Business Building.

Angell, a 1967 graduate of the College of Business, is project manager for leadership development at Chevron, where he is helping to change the company's "corporate mentality" and its approach to leadership and management.

The longtime Chevron employee has held a number of key positions at the company, including financial analyst, public affairs manager, business planning and development manager, vice president of the residential division, and senior vice president and chief operating officer.

He is speaking at Cal Poly as a College of Business Boswell Lecturer. His visit is funded by the Boswell Faculty Development Fund, established with a gift from the J.G. Boswell Foundation. In addition to bringing scholars and industry experts to campus, the fund has been used to support course development and faculty research, buy equipment and software, and provide special training.

For more information, call the College of Business at ext. 6-2704. □

Students to host holistic health fair

"Holistic Healing" is the title of an alternative health fair scheduled from 10 am to 4 pm Tuesday, March 3, in Chumash Auditorium.

The fair, put on by physical education and kinesiology students for their senior project, will feature guest speakers and classes by practitioners ranging from chiropractors to massage therapists.

Anyone interested in volunteering to help either before or during the event can call Amy Chaffe at 543-9101 or e-mail her at achaffe@calpoly.edu.

Get facts about CETI

The campus is urged to get informed about the California Education Technology Initiative (CETI), a planned partnership between the CSU and four technology firms to create, improve, and continually update communication technology throughout the system. Faculty, staff and student opinions are solicited and should be forwarded to Jerry Hanley, vice provost, Information Technology Services (ext. 6-2966 or e-mail jhanley). Complete information is on the CETI home page: <http://ceti.calstate.edu>. □

'ADA Quiz' results on Web

Here is another question and correct answer to the "ADA (Americans with Disability Act) Quiz" that was distributed to faculty and staff fall quarter by the Disability Resource Center. The information is also posted at www.sas.calpoly.edu/drc.

Other questions and answers will appear in upcoming issues of the Cal Poly Report. Comments and questions are welcome at ext. 6-1395.

Question 5:

Section 504 specifically mentions tape recording lectures as a means of assuring full participation in the classroom for students with disabilities.

Survey Results

Answer: Yes.

Section 504 states specifically that a postsecondary institution may not impose rules that prohibit the use of tape recorders in the classroom for students with disabilities. □

'African Americans in Paris' topic of March 5 talk

Tyler Stovall, professor of history at UC Santa Cruz, will talk on "African Americans in Paris" at 11 am Thursday, March 5, in Room 227 in the Erhart Agriculture Building.

Stovall is a noted expert on both African American and French history. He is president of the Western Society for French History.

His latest book, "Paris Noir: African Americans in the City of Light," details the allure of Paris for African American intellectuals over the last 100 years. The book also describes the problems they confronted.

For more information, contact George Cotkin, history professor, at ext. 6-2543 or gcotkin@calpoly.edu. □

Tickets half price for Thursday hoop contest

Staff and faculty members can buy two reserved tickets at half price – $4 each – for Thursday's basketball game against Cal State Fullerton.

You can buy them in advance at the Recreation Center ticket booth or at Mott Gym on game day, while supplies last. Game time is 7 pm.

Cal Poly Athletics is making the special offer to encourage the campus to watch the Mustangs play the last week of the season. □

Oranges, trees, vines on sale at orchard

You can pick your own Washington navel oranges at the Cal Poly Orchard at 6 lbs. for $2 and 25 lbs. for $8.

In addition, citrus, fig and other fruit trees and grapevines are on sale.

The orchard, open 10 am to 1 pm on Saturdays, is accessible from Highland Drive or Highway One. Watch for signs.

If it rains, the sale will be held indoors. □

Ash Wednesday Mass set by Newman center

The Newman Catholic Center is sponsoring an Ash Wednesday Mass beginning at 4:30 pm Wednesday, Feb. 25, in Chumash Auditorium.

Ashes will be distributed during a scriptural prayer service at 11:10 am.

Faculty and staff are welcome to attend either service. □

Here's how to reach us

The Cal Poly Report is published by the Communications Office every Wednesday during the academic year.

Items submitted by 10 am Thursday will appear in the following Wednesday's edition.

For information, call ext. 6-1511, or e-mail articles, suggestions, and questions to polynews@polymail. Items can also be faxed to ext. 6-6533. □

Foundation board to meet March 6

The Foundation Board of Directors will hold a regular meeting at 8:30 am Friday, March 6, in the Foundation Administration Building's Conference Room (#124). This is a public meeting. For more information or to obtain a copy of the agenda, contact Executive Director Al Amaral at ext. 6-1131. A copy of the agenda packet is available at the Kennedy Library Reserve Desk and the Academic Senate Office, Mathematics and Home Economics 143. □
